FOREWORD

Here is the 1950 Gohisca coming in on the GHS Express. After a long journey over many miles of track, through innumerable tunnels, it comes to blow a merry "TOOT" and to rumble down the rails of time.

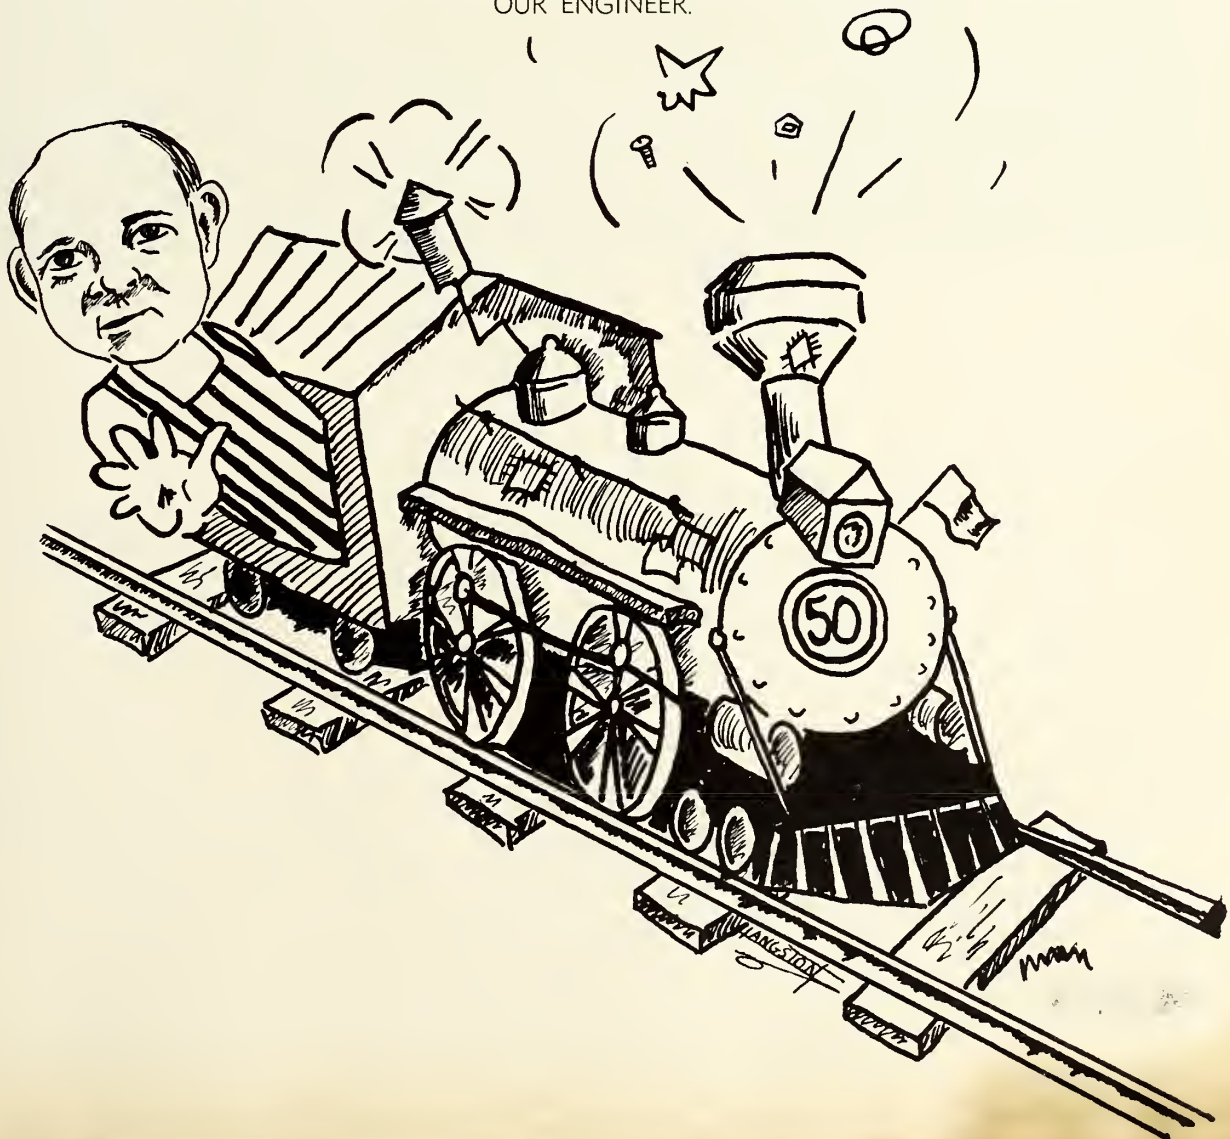

*Wayne County Public Library
Goldboro, N. C.*

DEDICATED TO THE ENGINEER

We have lots to thank him for. He has done all he could to keep our class on the right track for the four years we have ridden on the Goldsboro High School Express. He's a great guy; he's been a real friend ever since we first knew him. It is because of these things that we affectionately dedicate the 1950 Gohisca to Mr. C. W. Twiford, OUR ENGINEER.

The conductors of the '50 G.H.S. Express hope you will enjoy your ride on our train from the time you board the engine 'til you step off the caboose.

To the Flagmen, Grease Monkeys, Porters, Ticket Sellers, Brake-men, and the general repairmen who have no definite title and who did the indefinite but necessary things, "Thank you" for a swell job.

Our appreciation goes to the Firewoman, Mrs. William Craven, who has given us the steam to forge ahead.

CLASS SONG

Lavender and white, dear,
 Our pledge we make to you,
 A royal class with colors bright,
 The class of dear fifty.
 Oh, may we keep before us
 Our symbols shining light,
 Our colors leading,
 Our class proceeding,
 We follow on to victory and to might.

Here's to our dear old High School
 Our loyalty we bring,
 And as we enter into thy portals
 Our honors we proclaim;
 So sing thy students,
 Goldsboro High School,
 The class of dear fifty
 For we shall keep our colors
 Bright, Goldsboro, dear, for you.

A SENIOR PRAYER

Now I lay me down to sleep,
My diploma I do seek,
And if the wrong chemicals I should mix,
I would be in a terrible fix.
Take care of Miss Grant and English IV,
May they rest in peace forever more—
Forgive me when I fail to do,
My French assignment that's overdue,
And by tomorrow may I know,
All my lines for Mr. B's show.
Help me through this night to rest,
So again tomorrow I may do my best.

WHAT NEXT?

(In less than two thousand words.)

When wonders cease, so will the world!

Statistics show that the chance one has of being hit by an errant billiard ball are one in 832,459 shots. Because of this, I felt comfortably safe when I sallied forth into "Uncle" Walter's Academy of Finer Arts last Monday, but as of now, I am a confirmed believer in the old saying about there being three kinds of lies—lies, — lies, and statistics.

"Curse the luck!" I thought when I was comfortably enthroned in said Academy and looked up to see a spherical object sailing through the atmosphere with but one destination apparent. That destination was apparently the space between my eyes for it is here that said round object socked me.

The question has been asked often about what an individual thinks when he knows that danger is about to fall upon him and now when ever that question is asked of me, I feel sure that I can answer it. When I first observed the ball coming at me at a tremendous rate of speed, my first thought was of my financial security. You see, I'm entirely dependent upon the "chubs" who frequent the Academy of Finer Arts for my financial well-being and when I was about to get socked with an eight ball, I felt that I had good reason to get worried.

The long fall to the butt (cigarette) strewn floor seemed as if it would never end, but when it did, I could feel no pain what so ever. I was kind of disappointed—I didn't even get a good reassuring tap.

After I thought that I had occupied the floor long enough and had had time to get up a good crowd to sympathize with me, I opened my eyes fully expecting to be gazing into the comforting face of Lonnie, but when my eyes opened it was not the "Ho, Duz!" which greeted me. Instead, it was the well fed, life of ease look that some how manages to find a place on every cop's face. I thought immediately of "Cowboy" but I could find no motorcycle about, so I deduced that it wasn't said individual.

Upon straining my blue eyes a little more, I found that it was W. D. Gurley, Junior. Dear old Dub—but why the cop's uniform? Maybe it was because my eyes just felt blue. They felt like one blew one way and the other one blew the other way, but I was convinced that it was Dub. He helped me to my feet with the aid of his ever present night stick and explained to me that he had succeeded his daddy on the police force. He wanted to know where I had been and I told him that I had been nowhere but since we were so balled up, he should take the day off and get me straight. He agreed and proceeded to call it a day.

After talking with W. D. a while, I found out that he had worked his way up the force until he reached lieutenant but he was busted when they found out that he spent most of his time swiping apples from David Crawford's fruit stand. After hearing his life story, we switched on the radio and listened to another stirring episode of "Adaline, the Misled Majorette," produced and directed by Florence Bowden who made comments on the side for the benefit of listeners who may not know the story about Adaline.

After talking with W. D. for a while, I bade him farewell and continued my way down the misty street in search of an English institution where I might practice my art of being able to put forward, back, right, and other various and sundry kinds of English on a cue ball. I walked a long time down the main drag before I caught a ride with a little fellow in a big moving van. The fellow driving, whose name was Walter, said that his company could handle "All Loads on all Roads." It seemed to me that he made a pretty big jump from no load at all to all loads.

At last I found an Academy and upon venturing forth I found news that makes one think of home. All the talk that I could hear was of the coming struggle between Leslie Langston and Owen Ginn for the national nine-ball championship. It seems that Ginn had been challenged by Junior Hallow, "The Billiard Baron of the Bowery," for the world's championship but before the match could be played, Langston had to get something straight between himself and Ginn.

About the fifth game of French that I played was with a real dusty fellow named Dameron who had just lost his job as manager of the Rose Plantation out in New Hope. Dameron was pretty broken up about the whole affair and was taking it pretty hard before he could be cheered up by Lib Smith who ran a combination seed and fertilizer store just down the street.

After he settled down a bit, Dameron told me that Hugh Shine, who ran a dairy after he got out of college, had had to retire from the business because he kept his cows in a too contented condition. Shine always was a good man with the bull.

After my conversation with Dameron, I picked up a tattered and torn issue of "The Duplin Bi-Weekly Times" and began to while my time away while waiting for another chub. The first article that struck my eye was that Ashton Griffin, alias "Gashie" and other assorted and miscellaneous titles had just been arrested for blowing up a bridge. The article, written by Ruth Forehand, who doubles as president of the Business and Professional Women's Club, stated that jealousy was the motive for the crime. It seems that Engineer Paul Pittman wanted the bridge made of brick and when Jack B-O-rden was awarded the contract, Griffin blew it up.

Gene Roberts' "Rambling in Rural Duplin" column, which occupied a prominent position on page one, stated, among other things, that G. F. Seymour, prominent Rosewood farmer, had just succeeded Carlie Hinnant as the professor of agriculture at Everette Case University, formerly known as N. C. State.

In the theatrical news on the back page, I found that Skippy Albert's first Broadway production, "Mumbles Speaks Again," starring Worth Potter as Mumbles, had just been proclaimed a success after its 87th week. Before going to New York, both Albert and Potter had been connected with the Rosewood faculty. Albert's job of drama director and Potter's position as football coach were incorporated into one job and given to Kenneth Allen.

The seats in the billiard parlor were becoming a little hard, so I decided that I would take in a movie to soothe my aching bones. The film I saw was not a "talkie" but who needs words with the picture that was on? The picture was "The Girl from the Community Building Pool," starring Martha Rose. Need I say more? Incidentally, throughout the picture, Martha chewed chewing gum given to her by Jimmy Shumate who has succeeded P. K. Wrigley as the "chewing gum champion of the world."

When I came out of the movie, I felt something snake through the air, grasp my hand and commence to give it the most vigorous shaking it has received in a long time. When I recovered my breath, I found that I was gazing into the face of none other than Anne Butler. After a long sales talk on the advantages of living in New Hope, Anne told me that she had just been named as the Executive Secretary of New Hope's Chamber of Commerce.

When Anne stopped talking, I heard a long blast from a trumpet held to the lips of Harry James Percise to announce that the Mitchell boys, Bob and Eddie, the cream of the salesman crop, had just come to town on their nation wide sale of hand lotion. I stopped to talk with them for a while before thumbing a ride with Bobby Darden who was just starting out on his sandwich route.

Bobby's first stop was the Opera Shop where Janet Cook was still occupying the seat left to her by Ethel Parks and she told me that Bud Davis and Pot Smith were mopping up with their respective turkey farms. One of Pot's more steady customers is Janice Whaley who is trying to figure out a satisfactory feeding plan for her nine children.

After leaving Janet we started out on the route which has been expanded to include both Pikeville and Fremont. Bobby also has the contract for feeding the workmen who are redecorating the home of Donald and Peggy Percise. The redecorating work is under the direction of Peggy Britt who has just opened a branch office of interior decorating and other things in London.

Bobby's always safe driving habits were still with him as we hit the open highway and on the fifth curve, we sailed into the middle of a rose bush. While I was breathing in the aroma of the beautiful roses, I felt everything go black and when I woke up, I was back on the butt (cigarette) strewn floor of "Uncle" Walter's with Bobby Watson blowing his breath in my face in an attempt to revive me. I followed a long habit I've had and offered him a piece of chewing gum before I got to my feet.

When I was once more comfortably enthroned on one of the seats which line the wall, I thought of telling my story to the group about me, but I decided that I would wait and let you be the first to hear about it.

Signed

JIMMY ELLIS,
Prophet

THE FINAL TOOT

We, the Senior Class of Goldsboro High School, having passed through the Green valley of Freshmanhood as the pets and pride of all our teachers, having passed into Sophomoredom, bearing all the blame and silliness which Sophomores usually do, finally as Juniors showed signs of being an upright class and in our last year having conquered and reached the top, realizing that the end is near, do hereby make our "Last Will and Testament!!"

ARTICLE I: We take this opportunity to thank the faculty for putting up with us during our four year stay. Better luck next time!!!!

ARTICLE II: To G.H.S. we only hope for your sake that never again shall there be another class similar to ours, the class of '50. (But we're proud of it.)

ARTICLE III: To the freshman class we leave, hoping that sooner or later you'll get out of your huddle and see what G.H.S. is all about.

ARTICLE IV: To the Sophomore Class we bequeath you G.H.S., certain that it's in good hands!!!!

ARTICLE V: To the rising Seniors we leave you all the honors of a senior and all the memories of our wonderful class.

ARTICLE VI: (Personal).

1. Billy Ruffin leaves his perfect attendance to Billy Ruffin who, of course, will lend a hand in helping G.H.S. through another year. (What would they do without him???)
2. Sara Hunt would like to leave her enormous appetite to Lucy Jeffrey in hopes that she won't sit around at lunch and watch her eat anymore.
3. Metz Bizzell leaves his diploma to Miss Mills with thanks.
4. Anne Lee leaves the fire station to Margie Rose and Callie McArthur (reasons of her own)!
5. Lt. Barbara Anderson leaves her ability to play the clarinet and get along with Mr. Thompson to Capt. Billy Rouse.
6. Betty Barbee leaves the rising senior secretary a pencil with a big eraser, and don't think you won't need it.
7. Merle Best leaves his neat way of dressing to George Langston.
8. Bill Dameron and Bobby Darden leave their brother Jack Houser to G.H.S., wishing they could take him with them, but a little matter of a year prohibits it.
9. Jimmy Ellis leaves his ability to say big words in S.A. Council and keep a straight face afterwards to the next S.A. president.
10. Ashton Griffin wishes he could leave his ability to come in class anytime he likes and say most anything he wants to the teachers to someone, but due to the fact the following classes have no such material, he just leaves——!
11. Ann Hood leaves all her good times while at G.H.S. to Lydia Alexander.
12. Junior McRoy leaves his ability to play football to that rising Junior, Betsy Magill.
13. Adaline Vann leaves to Charles Norwood, one book of matches, in hopes that he will keep the home fires burning!
14. Ruth Edmundson leaves her ability to get her "Boy of the week" without being too noticeable to Frances Malpass.
15. Christine Daniels and Mary Lee Benson leave their self-centeredness to enjoy their own jokes to Ann Smith and Jerry Price.
16. Gene Roberts leaves Matilda Parker quiet hoping she'll stay that way.
17. Libby Lou Stuart leaves, only wishing she had last year.
18. Geraldine Pate left middle way of this year—with a diamond!

19. Jimmy Shumate leaves his dull outlook on life to David Denning.
20. Lib Smith leaves all her dignity and quiet manners to Louise Wooten.
21. Julia Manley is trying her best to leave, meanwhile if circumstances prevail, she wills that subject called "Algebra" to Pearline Ennis.
22. Joyce Williams leaves her seat in chemistry along with the song "Fools Paradise" to Martha Korne-gay.
23. Ralph Hood leaves his art of Be-Boping to Jimmy Longest.
24. Bob Mitchell leaves his love for the "Blue Grass" country to Sam Donnell.
25. Emma Jean Williams leaves—this time for good.
26. Hugh Shine leaves his ability to ask the right question at the wrong time to Carlyle Edmundson.
27. Alyene Rollins leaves her talent to dance to Dawson Thompson (the girl with the beautiful legs)!
28. Harold Nunn leaves all his books where he left them all year—in his locker—to "Red" Lewis.
29. Clara Hollowell leaves her brains to Sara Cobb—mix'um together and whatcha got——?????
30. Peggy Malpass leaves her ability to get along with a Percise to Joy Creech.
31. Sonny Gainey leaves Kathryn Newton to G.H.S. He would come back another year, "but doggone it, it's getting monotonous."
32. Gracie Batten leaves to C. W. Merrit her seat in History, hoping he doesn't have to warm it two years too.
33. Peggy Britt leaves her ability—There's a reward for the finder.
34. To G.H.S. we leave the football team consisting of Bobby Watson, Bud Davis, R. L. Gurley, and Kenneth Allen. Here's hoping you have a successful year.
35. Jack Burruss leaves his good-looks, personality, wit, and all-roundness to Phyllis Banks. She should have a booming junior year.
36. Janet Cook (Miss Opera Shoppe of '47, '48, '49, and '50) leaves the one thing nearest to her heart—the "Opera Shoppe" to Jane "Flop" Langston, hoping she'll take care of it and remember her to Clum once in awhile!!!!

All good things must come to an end—and the 1950 "Last Will and Testament" is no exception!!!
Goodbye, Goldsboro Hi—Our stay with you has been nothing short of wonderful!

TIMETABLE OF OLE' '50"

"Four long years have slipped right by Since first we entered Goldsboro High
We were physically small and mentally weak,
Our future in high school, we were out to seek!"

The train pulled into the station at G.H.S. on September 18th, 1946, to let off 186 passengers, all of whom were to make up the freshman class and become a part of the student body of Goldsboro High School. Perhaps it was the sudden jerk of the stopping train that left us all shaking like leaves, but scared or not, this was it!!!

There was not a big crowd to meet us at the station that day, no, just 172 seniors, 142 juniors and 133 sophomores, which together made 447 pairs of eyes staring us straight in the face. If ever we needed leaders it was now, so we lost no time in electing Peggy Ann Britt to serve as our first president. Along with her we chose Paul Pittman, vice-president; Barbara Russell, secretary; Jack Borden, treasurer; Peggy Malpass and Jimmy Shumate, cheerleaders, and Adaline Vann, parliamentarian. Mrs. B. W. Cox and Mrs. Britt Davis Griffin were our advisors. After receiving our inherited colors, lavender and white we choose to go along with it the iris as our class flower. Before the end of the year we had also adopted a class song and constitution.

We managed to come out of Freshman Week alive only to find that we had 31c in the treasury and owed exactly 80c. To remedy this we voted unanimously that it might be wise to sponsor a "Laurel and Hardy" movie. Having solved our financial problem, we settled down to work and as a result led the Honor Roll several quarters.

Our first social affair took place the latter part of April, when we gave a most enjoyable spring dance.

The results of the election for the next year were: President, Gene Roberts; Vice-President, Kenneth Allen; Secretary, Alyene Rollins; Treasurer, Bud Wallace; Cheerleaders, Julia Manly and Jimmy Thomas; and Parliamentarian, Eddie Mitchell. Our advisors were to be Miss Ina Mixon and Miss Geraldine Jones.

For the first time since our arrival we breathed a sigh of relief and murmured "Whew! one down and three to go."

"Silly Sophomore" was now our name.
And we were quite the stuff,
Yet, we trembled at the sight
Of those seniors, big and rough."

During the summer we could hardly wait to return to school and get busy on our most exciting event of all—Yep, we were in charge of Freshman Week and it did our hearts good to see those "Green Freshmen" suffer as we once had.

As usual we were confronted with the money problem and so decided to sponsor a Stationery Drive.

It was a success and we were again able to get out of the dumps.

In keeping with the school's customs we presented the Easter program that year.

Our thoughts then turned to the social world and we shall never forget that wonderful "S.O.S." Social or the picnic at Camp Tuscoroa.

Before leaving for our much needed vacation there was only one thing we needed to do—and that was to elect officers for our junior year. Jack Borden stepped into the limelight as president assisted by Barbara Anderson, vice-president; Peggy Pittman, secretary; Jimmy Shumate, treasurer; Barbara Harrell and Walter Culberth, cheerleaders; and Miss Eleanor Simpson and Miss Sara Alexander were to be our advisors.

Again we wiped our brows with relief—only this time we were half way.

"Our worries were over,
We were looking for fun,
As big upperclassmen
We could get anything done."

For years it had been the custom of the Junior class to sponsor the Curtis Magazine Drive but this year, in order to purchase new drapes for the auditorium, the drive was successfully turned into a school wide project.

Realizing ahead that money would be needed for the Junior-Senior we sponsored a Christmas Dance, thus raising our treasurer's report considerably.

In collaboration with the Goldmasquers, we gave the long remembered class play, "The Willow and I." This being the highlight of Junior Week.

Then came the day of all days when we ordered our rings.

Our hearts swell with pride when we recall the "Swankiest" Junior-Senior ever to be given. How could we ever forget, "Club Fantasia" in blinking neon lights or the theme "Musical Fantica." Yes, that Junior-Senior was quite an affair.

We elected Bobby Watson as our last president, Janet Cook, vice-president; Betty Barbee, secretary; Carlie Hinnant, treasurer; and Lib Smith and Bobby Darden, cheerleaders. Miss Agnes Rudisill was our advisor.

"Our days in high school were almost done,
Though friends and tasks we all had won—
Four happy years we had spent with you,
So to you G.H.S. we'll always be true."

As seniors our first goal was to edit a Gohisca that would top any other annual published before. Of course, it took lots of time and work, but it was worth it when we thought of the precious memories it would hold for us. After the annual had gone to press we turned to the dramatic side of life and gave our Senior class play, "John Loves Mary." A number of senior activities followed this, the greatest of course being the finale—Graduation. And as we walked across the finish line that night in June we suddenly realized that this was by no means the end, but merely the beginning of a new and different life—Yes, we were just another step nearer our goal.

"Without further words we bid you farewell,
And may good fortune come to you all,
Till again someday we'll meet once more
Inside the Golden Wall."

We are the class of '51.
Onward we will strive
Soon our victories will be won,
Fraternity will thrive.
In our hearts we have devotion
For classmates in our school.
Proudly we'll receive promotion
Green and white will rule.

All for one and one for all,
Our motto we praise,
Goldsboro High School we call;
Our school and banners raise,
Memories we'll share together
Of our school days,
Alma mater praise for ever;

CLASS SONG

We're the class of '52!
 Onward we will strive,
 To keep our symbols shining true,
 A sign that we will make our class the best one.
 And throughout the years to come,
 Onward to our goal we'll sail.
 For G.H.S. our hearts will always hail together everyone!

Yellow and white our colors be.
 Our flower the daffodil.
 We are proud for all to see the things that we fulfill,
 The memories of the hours.
 And the old school bells that chime
 We will cherish evermore.
 For them this song
 We raise our voices long;
 Through all the years to come.

CLASS SONG

The halls of dear old Goldsboro High
 Will always ring with memories
 Of all the happy hours we've spent
 Of many schoolmates' laughter.

Oh, class of nineteen fifty-three,
 Let's keep our banner raised.
 We'll always reach for higher goals,
 Dear G.H.S., be praised.

Our rose will never wither
 Though hardships may sustain,
 And in the end we all shall see,
 Our work was not in vain.

To red and white, our colors bright.
 Oh, let us loyal be,
 And let us always strive to win
 A lasting victory.

THE WILLOW AND I

Two sisters, young in 1900, are in love then with the same tall young man. One of the sisters is frail and gentle; the other robust and assertive and used to getting what she wants with no struggle to speak of. But it is the gentle Marsha that young Robin Todd loves and is about to marry—and never marries because Bessie, the more violent sister, tries to kill herself, and the other, finding her with a revolver and wrestling with her for it, is shocked out of reality when the gun is fired. Her mind comes back from the violence, and for forty years Marsha lives in her clock-stopped mind on her summer wedding day. And then, in the violence of a summer storm, she awakens to find herself old and the whole world changed.

THE SWAN

A match between Princess Alexandra and Prince Albert seems indifferent. Following the principle that love inspires further love, a mild flirtation between Alexandra and Agi, the family tutor, is permitted. It has the desired results and more, for Albert sees her as if for the first time, but Agi deeply loves her, and when Alexandra sees how sincere he is and how much he is hurt by learning the truth she in turn loves him. Obedient to her destiny and the wishes of her mother, Alexandra parts with Agi and marries Albert.

THE TAVERN

There came to a lonely tavern on a wild stormy night a mysterious vagabond, a woman, and the State Governor and his family who have been held up a short distance away. Several persons are suspected of the crime and the mysterious vagabond takes infinite delight in observing developments as they take place about him. When the suspense reached an almost unbearable climax the vagabond is at last located by the keepers of a nearby Sanatorium and it was learned that he, the madman, has been responsible for the vastly amusing and complicated series of misunderstandings.

RAMSHACKLE INN

An old maid librarian has saved her money for twenty years, in order to buy a hotel where she can meet interesting people. She purchases a strange tumble-down place near the ocean, and gets what she bargains for—and a good deal besides. The imperturbable librarian encountered ghosts and secret trunks; as she wandered through mysterious situations and thunderstorms, she met with drama and comedy, the living and the dead, and managed to emerge at the end none the worse for her extraordinary experience.

ALL MY SONS

During the war Joe Keller and Hubert Deever ran a machine shop which made airplane parts. Deever was sent to prison because the firm turned out defective parts, causing the death of many men. Keller went free and made a lot of money. The love affair of Chris Keller and Ann Deever, the bitterness of George Deever returned from the war to find his father in prison and his father's partner free, are all set in a structure of almost unbearable power.

VARSITY CL B P

When the score stands against me, and there seems little chance to win, when there is a whole half to play, and I am hot and tired and sick at heart, then I pray, Divine Comrade, for strength to play the game. It is easy enough to play when I am winning, when I feel fresh and there are no odds against me; but when things are going wrong, and I am tempted to cheat, to gamble, or to quit, then I need Thy help.

Bobby Watson
Louis Hallow
William Bell

PRAYER

I want to take life as a game and play it fair and hard. To do this, I need some strong leader, so I pray that Thou will always be with me. When I am cowardly, or tired, or baffled, give me the sense that Thou art by my side, telling me how to plan my way and giving me the courage to keep on. Be with me in the contest of today and all through life's course. Amen.
